PREMIER'S STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF CALVIN KRUK

VICTORIA – Premier Gordon Campbell issued the following statement today on the death of Dawson Creek Mayor Calvin Kruk:

“I join people across the province in mourning the sudden passing of Mayor Calvin Kruk, someone I considered to be a friend and a respected colleague.

“Calvin served the community of Dawson Creek with honour, integrity and passion for close to 10 years, first as a member of City Council, and then as mayor. He was an outstanding advocate for Dawson Creek, working to create prosperity for the citizens and to enrich the community through events such as the 2008 Northern Winter Games.

“Calvin’s tireless work ethic and pride in the people and community he represented will be sorely missed.

“On behalf of all British Columbians, especially residents of the Peace region, I extend condolences to Calvin’s wife Faith and son Austin.”
